Carlisle offers a glimpse of 2000 years of history whilst a regeneration scheme is looking to the future. Excellent rail connections to the rest of the country, makes Carlisle an ideal base for exploring the Hadrian's Wall, the Lake District or enjoy a day out by train along the Cumbrian Coast Line or Settle Carlisle Railway

Travelling by Train

With two services an hour Newcastle to/from Carlisle and even more Newcastle to/from Hexham, the train offers you the opportunity to sit back and enjoy some of the wonderful scenery of the north of England.

Buy your ticket before boarding the train at a booking office, ticket machine, app or online. Or get a promise to pay ticket from a ticket machine and pay on the train. A range of tickets are available including singles, returns, rangers and rovers. Discounts are available if you purchase tickets in advance, have a valid railcard, or if 2 people are travelling together. Groups of 10 or more can benefit from discounts with a group booking.

Train companies provide compensation when trains are late or cancelled. Find out more information about the Delay Repay process for Northern trains on the Tyne Valley Railway at northernrailway.co.uk/delayrepay.

Ranger and rover tickets give you the freedom to travel and explore. The Hadrian's Wall Country Day Ranger ticket is valid for travel between Sunderland and Whitehaven so you can hop on and off the train to explore some of the Roman attractions, visit one of the towns or villages, and enjoy the rural and coastal landscape during the journey. Other ranger and rover tickets include travel on the Tyne Valley Railway too.

On Public Holidays, the timetable will be that of the normal weekday service. Please be aware there may be some slight changes to the timetable from 6 October.

Times are subject to change. You are advised to check before travel at northernrailway.co.uk or call National Rail Enquiries on 03457 484950.

It is said there is something Dickensian about Corbridge, with its secret streets and courtyards. With a diverse range of independent shops, there's a great choice of places to eat, drink and stay. Its Roman Garrison town is set within breathtaking scenery.

The iconic
Sycamore Gap

The AD122 bus is a great way of exploring Hadrian's Wall country when you arrive by train at Haltwhistle or Hexham. Adult ticket prices start at £2.50 (single fare), it's a great way to explore using sustainable public transport.

If you are looking for inspiration for a day out. Travel by train to Hexham or Haltwhistle, hop on the AD122 bus to The Sill, then walk to Winshield Crags and Cawfield. Walk information on the Northumberland National Park website.

Hexham received the accolade of being the happiest place to live in the country.

This market town offers the visitor a choice of shopping, history, numerous activities and a vibrant arts centre/ theatre. It's the venue for regular farmers' markets and a popular Christmas market

Celebrating 200 years of Railways

Look out for new information boards at stations along the route about the history of the Newcastle-Carlisle Railway and people associated with the area whose efforts influenced rail travel today and during the last 200 years.

A new human sundial has been installed at Haltwhistle Railway Station. Why?

In the 19th century, railways brought standardisation of time throughout the country. Before that towns and villages had their own local time.
